1. I look and stare so deep in your eyes, I touch on you more and more every time, when you leave I'm begging you not to go, call your name two, three times in a row.
2. God has gone and heavens here, there's nothing left for you to fear, shake your ass come over here, now scream, now I'm a burning lethargy of everything I used to be, you're my rock of empathy, my dear.
3. Take these arms that were made for loving and this heart that will beat for two, take these eyes that were meant for watching over you and I've been such a long time waiting for someone I could call my own, I've been chasing a life I'm dreaming, now I hold.
4. We've come a long, long way together, through the hard times and the good, I have to celebrate you baby.
5. I remember when we used to sit in the government yard in Trenchtown, oh but oh but so many hypocrites as they would mingle with the good people we meet. Good friends we've had or good friends we've lost along the way. In this great future you can forget your past so dry you're your tears I say.
6. Tell me, tell me, is life just a playground, think you're the real deal honey and someone will always look out for you, but wake up baby, you're so totally deluded, you'll end up all and lonely if you don't get a bullet in your head.
7. There's a boy I know, he's the one I dream of, looks into my eyes.

9. As I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I take a look at my life and realize there's nothing left, because I been brassing and laughing so long that even my mama thinks that my mind has gone, but I ain't never crossed a man that didn't deserve it, he be treated like a punk you know that's unheard of, you better watch how you're talking and where you're walking or you and your homies may be lying in chalk, I really hate to trip but I've got to though, as I grew I saw myself in the pistol smoke, fool, I'm the kind of g the little homies want to be like, on my knees in the night saying prayers in the streetlight.

11. She's got a smile that it seems to me, reminds me of childhood memories where everything was as fresh as a bright blue sky. Now and then when I see her face it takes me away to the special place and if I stare too long I'd probably break down and cry.
12. My baby don't mess around because she loves this song and this I know for sure, but does she really wanna but expect to see me walk out the door, don't try to fight the feeling cos the thought alone is killing me right now, thank god play the right music, where they make you scream, you can do anything, when you get the chance.
